"On Thursday Mrs. Lucinda Barker, mother of Mrs. B.B. Davis of this village, died at the residence of her son, in Sugar Creek, (James B. Barker) age nearly 93 years. Mrs. Barker was one of the oldest residents of the county, immigrated here with her husband 37 years ago. She survived her husband 15 years. She was buried at Sugar Creek on Saturday, and her funeral was the occasion of a very sad death the same day. A Mrs. Spooner, relative of the deceased, residing in Johnstown, left her husband who had been out of health for sometime, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Barker. During her absence her husband in a fit of insanity hung himself and she returned to find him a corpse."
