Their wedding took place Thursday evening, November 8 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schultz. At the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Marie Kriehn, the couple entered the parlor attended by Miss Clara Schultz and Harry Paul, taking their places before the arch decorated with smilax and with potted house plants in the background. The bride and bridesmaid were beautifully attired in white, carrying bouquets of bride's roses. Rev. A. Hattlestad, of Milton, performed the ceremony in the presence of over 100 relatives and friends. After congratulations had been offered to the newly wedded pair, the guests were served a 3 course supper. The tables were prettily decorated with red and white carnations. Many beautiful, valuable and useful wedding presents were given, including table linen, silverware and furniture.

The groom is a Rock River boy and is a good, industrious young man, while the bride was formerly a teacher in the high school and both have many friends who wished them prosperity and happiness in the coming years. The newly-wedded pair will leave this week for Ladysmith, Wis., where they will make their future home.

Saturday evening, a reception was given them by the groom's parents, about 30 of their friends being present. The evening passed all too quickly with music, games and conversation. A fine supper was served to the guests during the evening and at 12 p.m. all departed to their homes feeling that a pleasant time had been spent by all.

Marriage Notes for Catherine Schultz and Joseph DePorter:

Milton Methodist church was the scene of a beautiful wedding at 8:00 p.m. Saturday, principals of which were Kathryn Schultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will C. Schultz, Milton, and Joseph DePorter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Camiel DePorter, Lima. Baskets of pink and white peonies decorated the altar while coral and white ribbons were stretched down the center aisle.

Mr. Schultz gave his daughter in marriage and the Rev. William S. Carr read the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Otto Steffins, Milton played the prelude of wedding music and the traditional wedding march.

For her wedding the bride wore a white marquisheer gown over taffeta. Lace insertions embellished the gown and tiny buttons of self material made trimming. Her shoulder length veil fell from a Juliet cap trimmed with pearlized orange blossoms. A pearl necklace, the gift of the bridegroom, comprised the bride's jewelry. Her bouquet was of pink roses and swainsona.

Marjorie Zoellic, the bride's sister, and Roland Meyer, Janesville, attended the couple. As flower girl Darlene Meyer, niece of the bride, scattered rose petals for the bridal party. The bride's attendant wore a deep coral taffeta frock and had a corsage of pink and white carnations. Darlene's dress was Nile green designed with floor length skirt.

Both Mrs. Schultz and Mrs. DePorter wore sheer print dresses and had corsages of roses and sweet peas. A reception of 65 guests was held in the church parlors.

Celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary with an open house on Sunday, June 19, from 3 to 6 p.m. at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Schauer, 2813 Dakota, Janesville, WI.
